

Walking in Truth

“Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.” Psalm 27:11 (KJV)

Number 30 in the series “God’s Faithfulness in My Daily Battles”

Beloved, you and I know that we live in a world of no absolutes. Everything is relative, and situational ethics are everywhere. It makes me think of Judges 17:6 (KJV) which reads, “In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.” This is the same as the world we live in today. This was a description of my life before I became a believer. However, as soon as I put my trust in Christ as my Savior in 1976, I looked at my ruined life and all the ways I tried to change my husband and myself. It was evident that my ways of handling situations had not worked.

I prayed Psalm 86:11–13 (KJV), “Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name. I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore. For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.” As a new believer I did not want to live my way anymore, so I cried out to God to teach me His ways. I wanted to know truth as God saw it. I did not want just head knowledge. I wanted to know God’s truth about myself, my marriage, and every situation in my life. I wanted to obey God’s Word and to walk daily in His truth.

As I would daily read the Bible, I came to know, love, trust, and appreciate my Lord. The more I learned, the greater I saw the depth of my sin and GOD’S INCREDIBLE AMAZING GRACE, love, and mercy toward me. The greatest desire of my heart was to live a life that would glorify Him!

I did not know how to be a godly woman or a godly wife, but I knew that God had all the answers, and as my loving heavenly Father, He would help me. So with each situation and every decision, I would ask my Lord for help.

Psalm 25:4-5 (KJV) reads, “Shew me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.” God never failed me. As I waited on Him, He was so faithful. He would lead me to the exact scriptures that I needed for each situation. He would show me what needed to be changed. He would teach me His truth and how to walk in truth instead of the paths of sin, pain, and destruction in which I had been walking. He gave me the power to obey Him. He transformed my life and marriage.

Beloved, if you are seeking help for your life, the only place you will find truth is in the Bible. Do not be proud and independent like I was. Do not run to the world for answers. Run to Jesus and obey His Word! Again, He will never fail you.

Unbeliever, can I speak to you today? Jesus Christ loves you. He died for you so that you could be forgiven of your sin. Give your life to Him. Only He can give you truth and peace. This world is not going to help you. The best of this world is emptiness, but Jesus Christ can fill your life.
