

Where Are My Feet Walking?

“Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.” Psalm 27:11 (KJV)

Number 31 in the series “God’s Faithfulness in My Daily Battles”

Beloved, we know Satan is the enemy of our soul. Daily he tempts us with sin. He tries to destroy our health, our marriage, our children, our finances, and our minds, etc. We live in a world full of evil, and it gets worse every day.

As believers it is important to daily check and see where our feet are walking. Are we walking in the truth and wisdom of the Lord and His Word, or are we walking in the ways of this world and worldly philosophies? Are we walking in godliness, or are we walking in evil and worldliness?

Proverbs 28:26 (KJV) reads, “He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.” There is so much pride and independence in our hearts. Daily we make decisions—some very major ones—without praying and seeking God’s wisdom from the Bible. Often we do not wait to hear from God. Like fools, in pride, we trust our own heart. We have all done this and reaped the consequences. However, when we humble ourselves and seek the Lord’s help, daily reading and obeying the Bible, praying and waiting on Him to guide us, we walk in wisdom, and the Lord helps us.

Psalm 119:101 (KJV) reads, “I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.” Christ loved us so much that He died to save our souls when we were His enemies. Do we love Him and the truth and wisdom of His Word so much that whenever temptations come our way, we refrain our feet from every evil way? Or do we give in to the enemy of our soul and our flesh and bring shame to Jesus?

Psalm 119:105 (KJV) reads, “Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.” Again, beloved, this world is getting darker daily. In every situation and in every decision we have to make, we have choices: to walk in darkness, making worldly, compromising decisions or to walk in the light of the truth of God’s Word. It is the choice between life with peace and joy or death with sorrow, heartache, and destruction.

Before I put my trust in Christ as my Savior, my feet walked in a lot of darkness. I walked in the darkness of bitterness and unforgiveness, the darkness of hate and anger, the darkness of pride, rebellion, and sin, and the darkness of lusting after the things of this world. By GOD’S AMAZING GRACE, I have chosen to walk in the light as He is in the light.

There is no darkness in God. Daily I ask Him to cleanse my heart and soul of all darkness and to help me walk in the light of His Word. I hope this is your desire also. Let’s not continue to be proud, foolish, and independent. Jesus loves us. He wants to help us. He longs to help us. Unbeliever, today is the day to give your life to Jesus Christ. Apart from Him you will have no true peace or lasting joy.

With a goal to glorify Jesus Christ
Janice McBride