

My God Never Fails Me

“For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.”

Psalm 27:5 (KJV)

Number 8 in the series “God’s Faithfulness in My Daily Battles”

Because of King David’s relationship with the Lord and the many times his enemies had tried to destroy him, he had total confidence in God’s faithfulness and power. I feel the same way that King David did. In the years I have been a believer, the enemy of our souls has attacked my husband and me constantly. I know that many of you are having the same experience. Beloved, we are in a war! The first part of John 10:10 says that the enemy is a thief who comes to steal, kill and destroy. He daily tries to steal our faith and trust in God and our peace and joy. He tries to kill us through attacks on our health. He tries to destroy our homes, our finances, and our hope in God.

However, I praise God for the second part of John 10:10 (KJV) which reads, “...I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.” Beloved, no matter what our enemy is doing to us, our Lord is faithful. Jesus is in control at all times! Just like King David, my husband’s faith and my faith, trust, and confidence in our Lord has grown with every attack. GOD’S AMAZING GRACE has never failed us!

It is impossible to trust someone we do not know, and we will not get to know the Lord unless we spend time with Him. The more time we spend with Him, the more our trust, faith, and confidence in Him will grow. The key to trusting the Lord in life’s battles is in the depth of our daily relationship with Him.

Some of you today are in the midst of great sorrow, suffering, tests, and trials. Some of you need new power, wisdom, hope, and strength from the Holy Spirit. May I encourage you with a portion of scripture that has often helped me. Psalm 3 (KJV) reads, “Lord, how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me. Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head. I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me. I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about. Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly. Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people.”

Beloved, the closer we come to the return of our Lord Jesus Christ, the greater the battles against the powers of darkness will be. Let us not forget that having defeated Satan on the cross by paying the price to save our souls with His own blood, Jesus will never fail us! The enemy of our souls may be trying to tell us, “There’s no hope for you in God.” Beloved, Satan is a liar. Our God hears our cries for help. He is our only hope. He died for us, and He will not desert us now.
